FIGHT PROHI CAUSE

Organized Movement Has Started In New York.

BREWERS ARE BEHIND SAME

As Soon as Various Local Organizations Are Well Under Way They Will Be Formed into a National Organization—Strong Fight On.

New York, Jan. 29.—An organized movement against the wave of prohibition which is spreading over the country is now being made in New York and elsewhere.

The brewers and dealers in brewers' supplies and machinery are behind the movement and are organizing associations throughout the country, the object of which will be to fight the prohibition movement.

The organization in New York is known as the Manufacturers and Dealers' Club of Greater New York, and circulars have been sent to jobbing firms and men in the financial district in an effort to extend the membership throughout the business world.

It is proposed, as soon as the local organizations are well under way throughout the country, to organize them into a national organization. It is said that large numbers of business men are joining local organization. In this connection attention is called to a recently published statement of the distillers' securities corporation that while the prohibition movement lessened the consumption of beer it has had at the same time the effect of increasing the demand for stronger beverages.

JOHN D. COMES TO THEIR AID.

Many Unemployed Given Work on His Estate at Tarrytown.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Following the announcement that John D. Rockefeller had directed the superintendent of his estate at Pontotoc Hill to give work on the estate to the Tarrytown men who are out of employment, an army of the unemployed, the largest ever seen in this part of the state, marched down on the estate Monday. Many of them were from New York City and other places within a short distance.

The superintendent declined to furnish work for any of the applicants except those who live in Tarrytown or in the immediate vicinity of the estate, saying that it was necessary to take care of them first and that there was not work enough to take care of the unemployed from a distance.

EXPLORER WALLACE RETURNS.

Man Who Carried Dead Body of Comrade 400 Miles on His Shoulders.

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 29.—Dillon Wallace, the explorer and writer, the man who carried the dead body of the leader of the Hubbard expedition in Labrador 400 miles on his shoulders, has just returned from a journey through Mexico.

He left for New York, and it is his intention to return to the coast next summer to explore further the northern and southern parts of Mexico.

Congregation Balked at Dog Breeding.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29—Because a portion of his congregation objected to his breeding dogs, Rev. L. Moore Smith, pastor of the Scotch Plains Baptist church, has resigned his charge. Mr. Smith has been a lover of dogs all his life and when he took charge of the Scotch Plains church he established a kennel and devoted considerable time to the raising of fancy dogs which have won him many prizes at Bench shows.

Only Dogs Followed Her To Grave.

Florence, Italy, Jan. 29.—The funeral of Ouida was a most pitiful epilogue to her pitiful end. She died amid squalor and poverty, and her body was followed to the grave only by a dozen dogs she had starved herself to feed and her faithful maid, to whom she left her last manuscripts. The body was buried in the English cemetery at Bagni di Lucles, and the spot is marked by a wooden cross.

ALABAMA FAVORS BRYAN.

Governor Comer and Friends May Control State Campaign Affairs.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 29.—It is regarded as certain that Governor B. B. Comer will be one of the delegates at large from Alabama to the national democratic convention at Denver; also that the friends of the governor and the followers of Mr. Bryan will control absolutely in the party affairs in the state this year. It is pretty well established that Governor Comer is to keep in line for candidacy for one of the senatorial vacancies later on, and his friends believe that he will not let the complete grip which he has on the party organization at this time escape him.

That the governor is going to run for the senate is generally understood among those closest to him.

The state committee is in the hands of the governor and his friends. He will be able to do what he pleases with it. It is conceded that it will order a primary, but the impression is that the delegates selected by it will be left to name the twenty-two delegates which Alabama is to have in the national meeting. There has been some talk of voting direct for the delegates, but this is going to meet with little support, it is now thought. The outlook is that, left free, the convention will select a full list of Comer-Bryan men.

TORNADO CUTS SWATH.

One Person Killed, Others Hurt and Damage Done in Tennessee.

Sweetwater, Tenn., Jan. 29—A severe cyclone raged in Pond Creek valley, near Sweetwater, Sunday night, killing one and injuring five others, one of whom is believed to be fatally hurt. James M. Cassidy, of Blue Springs, eight miles from Sweetwater, was killed and his wife was perhaps fatally injured. Their residence was demolished by the storm. Edward Everett, who lives at Pond Creek, 4 miles from Sweetwater, lost his home, it being swept away by the cyclone.

Three of his children and his wife were badly injured. Everett himself escaped unhurt. Wiley Sliger's barn, at Philadelphia, Tenn., was blown down, and two horses were killed. Israel Lenoir, of Philadelphia, lost a barn and two cows. Joseph Porter and George McCreary, also of Philadelphia, lost a barn each. Whigham, Ga., Jan. 29—Hiram Maxwell, one of the leading citizens and a prosperous farmer of this community, residing about four miles to the northwest of here, is said to have disappeared very mysteriously from his home. He had some trouble with a negro on his plantation a few days ago and it is feared that foul play has some part in it.

SHIP'S CREW IN PERIL

Ten Huge Waterspouts Encountered In Gulf of Mexico.

VESSEL'S NARROW ESCAPE

Phildelpaia, Ja., Jan. 29.—Ten waterspouts encountered in the gulf stream impeded the progress of the Norwegian steamer Cecilia, which has arrived here from Caragena by way of Tusks island.

The Cecilia was off the Carolinas last Friday when the hurricane which brought death and destruction swept up the coast. For twelve hours the vessel was buffeted about, receiving no more damage than the loss of a few deck movables.

In the wake of the hurricane came the waterspouts. The first was seen on the starboard and its large size brought terror to the crew. The captain evaded the spout only to find the vessel apparently getting in the track of another.

From port to starboard, over a course extending five miles, the Cecilia was steered until ten huge waterspouts were eluded.

BIG ARMY DEPOT.

War Department Takes Steps to Secure Site for Same.

San Francisco, Jan. 29.—The Examiner says that the war department authorities have taken definite steps to secure a site here for the biggest United States army depot in the country. It is to be located on part of the existing army reservation at Fort Mason, and then run northerly on land at present submerged.

This submerged land is owned by the Dore family of this city, and Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and her sister, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., of New York.

The land is to be condemned in the United States circuit court. Assistant United States District Attorney Clark has perfected a suit for that purpose. Congress has already appropriated $1,500,000 to pay for the site and filling in the submerged section.

Franco-American Reciprocity Arrangement—Concession to France.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Secretary Root and Ambassador Jusserand have signed the Franco-American reciprocity arrangement drawn under section 3, of the Dingley act.

The agreement concedes to France an abatement of twenty per cent in the duties on champagne and sparkling wines imported into America. For its part, the French government confirms the minimum tariff rate now accorded to American products. Provision also is made for appointment of a commission of three members on each side to consider and report upon possible amendments to the existing trade regulations in both France and America to facilitate exchange.

Flotilla at Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 29.—The officers of the American torpedo boat flotilla, who arrived here Sunday from Rio Janeiro, were received Tuesday by President Alcoria and the ministers of war, marine and foreign affairs. President Alcoria spoke pleasantly to each of the officers, and to Lieutenant Cone, who is in command of the flotilla, he expressed his great pleasures and satisfaction in the visit to the Argentine of the American warships. To these words of welcome, Lieutenant Cone made a suitable reply.

TRIAL CAUSED FIGHT.

Clash Between Newspaper Reporters and Former Officer's Friends.

New Orleans, Jan. 29.—As a result of a clash between newspaper reporters and photographers on one side and followers of the former Whitaker police regime on the other, here Monday, several men were assaulted, one was arrested and affidavits may be made against others.

The fight occurred outside the criminal courts building, immediately following the postponement of the case of former Inspector Edward S. Whitaker, charged with shooting at Joseph M. Lecegne, a newspaper editor, with intent to kill.

During the clash, Mort M. Burger, a newspaper photographer, who attempted to "snap shot" the ex-inspector, was struck by Fred Holyland, a bartender, Robert M. Farrell, a newspaper reporter, who went to Burger's assistance, was also knocked down. Holyland, who is a son of one of the detectives who accompanied Whitaker the night he went to the newspaper office, was placed under arrest.

CARD PARTIES BARRED.

Sheriff Draws the Line on Games in Public Places.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 29.—Sheriff Higdon has declared that card parties at the Birmingham Country club will be prohibited in the future. A prominent society woman who was to have given a large party this week has called it off as a result of the sheriff's decision.

Colonel Higdon stated that the new state law prohibited card playing in public places and the Country club clearly came under the inhibition. He said that if card games were played frequently enough in private homes to justify the inference that such homes were "public places" these games would also be stopped.

FELL DEAD AT THROTTLE.

Grim Reaper Pursues Crew of Mississippi River Steamer.

Gallipolis, O., Jan. 29.—Lewis Clark, a veteran river engineer, and known from Pittsburg to New Orelans, fell dead at the throttle of the packet steamer Lorena, bound for Pittsburg, Monday.

TRAGEDY OF THE SEA

CAUGHT IN TERRIFIC STORM

Thrilling Story of the Loss of the White Band and Her Crew Off the Delaware Breakwater—A Blinding Snowstorm Added to Terrors.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 29.—Their last act an attempt to save the crew of the tug M. E. Scully from death by drowning, four men and two women perished off Delaware Breakwater last Saturday morning, where the barge White Band, bound from Newport News for this city, sank during the terrible gale which swept the coast. The story of the loss of the White Band and her crew was told by Captain Henry W. Gegg, of the Scully, when the tug arrived in port with the barge New Jersey in tow.

The Scully, bound from Newport News for Providence, with the barges White Band and New Jersey, both coal laden, in tow, when off Delaware Breakwater Friday night, ran into a terrific northwest gale. The New Jersey's crew cut the hawser and anchored, while the Scully hove to, with the White Band still fastened to the hawser. Owing to snow, it was impossible to see more than a few feet or to communicate with the barge.

During the night the captain of the Scully felt the hawser part and examination showed that it had been cut on the White Band's end of the line. It is believed on board the Scully that when the captain and the crew of the White Band knew their craft was sinking they deliberately cut the hawser to save the Scully from being dragged beneath the sea.

When the Scully finally was able to proceed to sea again she found a lot of wreckage which was positively identified as belonging to the White Band.

MISSISSIPPI LEVEES.

Senator Davis Wants the Government To Take Charge.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Senator Jefferson Davis has prepared a bill to put the levee system of the Mississippi river in the hands of the government, which he will introduce this week. By means of a sufficient appropriation he proposes that the government shall take over the present levees and proceed to maintain them. The bill also will provide for the appropriation of money to drain the sunken lands in the Mississippi basin.

Senator Davis maintains that it is as much the duty of the government to maintain the Mississippi levees and drain the lowlands thereabouts as it is to expend money to reclaim arid lands of the west.

KAISER WILHELM'S BIRTHDAY.

Subjects of German Ruler Celebrate the Occasion.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Emperor William Monday was 49 years of age. He was "awakened" Monday morning, according to the immemorial birthday custom, by fanfaring by the palace trumpeter and the singing of a hymn by the castle choir at 8 o'clock. His majesty, dressed in a field marshal uniform, greeted the choristers and received the congratulations of the visiting princes, after which there was service in the private chapel of the palace.

SPRING PARK FARM AT THE STATE FAIR

Manager Callison Will Have Fine Display at Tampa This Year.

WELL PLEASED WITH OUTLOOK

Says Every Indication at This Time Points to Fact That Fair Will be a Success—Grounds Cleaned and Repaired—Races a Great Feature.

N. A. Callison, manager of the famous Spring Park Stock Farm, located about nine miles west of Gainesville, and which is one of the largest and finest in the Southern States, has returned from Tampa, where he has been for the past two or three days for the purpose of arranging for the annual exhibit of cattle and stock from the Spring Park Farm at the State Fair, which will be held in February, beginning February 5th.

Manager Callison has always manifested a great interest in the State Fair, not only from the standpoint of his own interests and displays, but for the general welfare of the county. Last year he was the general commissioner from Alachua county, and succeeded by his energy and clever work in carrying off half of the first or grand prize, while those who were familiar with the situation declared he was entitled to the prize as a whole. In addition to the individual exhibits from Spring Park Farm, he succeeded in getting together a large collection, representing the various farming, horticultural, manufacturing, mining and commercial interests of the county, and had them tastefully arranged. This exhibit, which occupied a prominent position in the main building, attracted the attention of ninety per cent. of the thousands of visitors to the fair, with the result that Alachua received a good share of advertising from the venture.

While the county will have no exhibit as a county at the coming State Fair, Manager Callison, who has already carried off many premiums, expects to make a good exhibit. He will take three carloads of cattle and stock, including Herefords and Jerseys, Berkshires, Angora goats, and other fancy stock.

"We expect to have a better native display than ever this year," remarked Manager Callison, in speaking of the cattle, "because we have had time to grow, and will have more native cattle on the ground than at any previous time. I feel sure that our native cattle will make a fine showing at this fair."

Manager Callison is very ambitious in his efforts to introduce a better grade of cattle into this section. Through his generosity, at the Farmers' Institute, which will be held in this city on February 5, 6 and 7, and at which farmers and stockmen from every section of the State are expected, there will be a practical lecture on cattle, the Herefords being supplied from Spring Park Farm. Not only will this prove of great benefit to those in attendance, but the herd from Spring Park Farm will be exhibited at the Institute for a couple of days, February 6 and 7, after which the cattle will be shipped direct to the State Fair, leaving here on the 8th.

At the close of the State Fair, Manager Callison will take his exhibit to Jacksonville, where they will be seen to advantage at the Florida Mid-Winter Exposition for a week or two. This exhibit is bound to prove of great interest to the thousands of visitors at this exposition.

Manager Callison stated that he was very well pleased with the outlook for the State Fair. The grounds are being cleared and improved preparatory to the opening, the buildings are being repainted and other improvements made. From present indications all space in the main building will be taken, and the racing feature promises to be the best ever seen in Florida, as a number of fine race horses of national reputation have already arrived.

DOGS WELL TRAINED.

They Prove Valuable Adjunct to New York City's Police Force.

New York, Jan. 29.—New York's trained police dogs were put into active service Tuesday morning for the first time. Experiments with the Belgian hounds brought from Europe and trained with an especial view to service as an adjunct to the city's police force proved the effectiveness of their instruction.

Such attacks on uniformed men by policemen in plain clothes were promptly resented by the dogs, only the muzzles on the animals preventing serious harm being done the aggressors.

The dogs, after their exercise in the district between Prospect Park and Coney Island after midnight, were taken before daylight, but will be on duty tonight.

DEATH OF JOHN M'CREDIE.

Well-Known and Popular Resident of Ocala Passed Away Suddenly.

Information reached this city Wednesday night of the death of John McCredie, which occurred suddenly at his home in Ocala on Tuesday night, having expired while he was reading a newspaper.

The cause of the death is described as acute indigestion. Mr. McCredie was enjoying his usual health at supper, but after the meal, when he sat down to read his paper, complained of feeling badly. He assured those about him, however, that it was nothing serious—only a pain in the side which would soon pass away. It was only a few moments before he reeled in his chair and passed away.

Deceased was seventy-four years of age. He was born in Scotland, but has been in America for many years, the greater part of his life being spent in Micanopy, where he reared an interesting family. He was well known and popular in that section, and his death will be regretted by all who knew him.

A few months ago Mr. McCredie moved with his family to Ocala. At the time of his death he had just returned from a visit to relatives in Micanopy.

Deceased is survived by a large number of relatives in the vicinity of Micanopy.

The funeral will be held at Micanopy this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Dodge, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Ocala.

Judge Mason's Court.

There was an unusual turn in the tide of affairs in the court of County Judge Mason Wednesday, when George Adkins, a white man, was arraigned upon a charge of vagrancy, and was sentenced to three months in the county prison. This was an unusual occurrence in this court, being the first case of the kind since the vagrancy law went into effect.

Adkins was arrested by Marshal Arnow near the Tampa and Jacksonville passenger depot. Adkins stopped the marshal and asked him for a match, which resulted in his arrest.

Adkins stated that he was from Michigan. He appeared able-bodied, but stated that there was no work in the North, and he decided to come South. He had been unable to find employment here, he said, and it was either beg or starve.

Marshal Arnow, judging from the man's demeanor, declared that he believed he had never looked for work, as men of his physique are in demand everywhere.

Adkins will have a job for the next three months, at least.

A CLEAN COURT RECORD.

Justice Colman Has Not Had Occasion to Scratch His Book This Year.

"I never saw times as dull in my whole official life," good-naturedly declared Justice Colman in his office Wednesday, when asked about the condition of affairs in his court.

"I'll wager that there is not another town the size of Gainesville, or another district the size of my own, in the State of Florida, or even in the South, that can show a cleaner record than this court, for I have not had a single case docketed this year."

Mrs. Read from Cedar Key.

The lady, Mrs. Yulee Read, who was the victim of a purse-snatcher in Jacksonville Monday night, and who was reported to The Metropolis as being from Gainesville, was not from this city, but from Cedar Key.

Mrs. Read is a daughter of Ex-Senator David Yulee, an old and highly respected citizen, builder of the railroad from Fernandina to Cedar Key, and one of the pioneer promoters of Florida, who has been dead many years.

Mrs. Read transacts her banking business in this city, and among other items in her book was a check on the Gainesville National Bank, as the paper stated, which probably led the reporter of The Metropolis to believe that the lady made her home in this city.

Death of Dr. Barnard.

The sad news reached the city a few days since of the death in St. Marys, Ga., of Dr. A. F. Barnard, formerly of Marion county, and later a prominent citizen and physician of Savannah, where he distinguished himself during the last epidemic of yellow fever in that city. He was a descendant of Lord John Barnard of Barnard Castle, England. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Fannie Turner of Savannah. He was an uncle of J. O. Andrews, and great uncle of Mrs. H. J. Goodnow, of this city.

Death of George Chesser.

George Chesser, sixteen years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Chesser, died at the home of his parents at LaCrosse at an early hour Tuesday morning of diabetis.

The funeral was held at Antioch Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, and was largely attended by friends and relatives of deceased, who gathered to pay their last sad respects.

PROF. FLINT'S LECTURE.

Made a Fine Address on Panama Canal at Auditorium Tuesday.

Notwithstanding that there were other attractions in the city, the big auditorium was well filled, and those present were greatly impressed with the lecture.

A large number of school children were present, and the lecture, in connection with its entertaining feature, tended to enlighten the children considerably in the matter of geographical history. It is hoped by those who heard the lecture that Prof. Flint will again favor the people with an illustration of his wisdom in this direction at an early date.

PROSPECTIVE BUILDINGS.

Prof. Blair and Others Will Erect Handsome Homes Near University.

The building boom in the vicinity of the University grounds seems to have taken on new life, as several new buildings are reported for that section soon. During the past few months a number of handsome and expensive residences have been completed in that section, which would do credit to any city in the country.

Among those about to be erected is a residence for Prof. A. W. Blair, of the experimental farm, who will build on West Liberty. Prof. N. H. Cox, it is also understood, will erect a neat home, while Mr. Lewis, the electrician, contemplates the erection of a neat cottage in that vicinity.

Plumbers Are All Right.

Editor Sun: As some of the plumbers seem to have taken exception to a recent article in your paper in reference to the condemnation of certain plumbing, I wish to state that I had no reference to work done since my appointment as inspector of plumbing, and that the work so condemned was not done by any licensed plumber now operating in the city.

This information is given in justice to the plumbers as well as for the benefit of the general public.

And now the Nevada Legislature, after all scoldings that Roosevelt has given Governor Sparks, complacently requests the President to keep the troops in Goldfield in the face of his indignant order for their withdrawal. The presumption of the legislators certainly should impress him.

FOR A STATE CONVENTION.

The Pensacola News says: "The Brooksville Southern Argus, in the course of an able editorial, argues in favor of the holding of a State convention for the purpose of declaring a platform for the party in Florida. Now if the Argus man had gone a little further and added 'also for the purpose of selecting National and State committeemen, National convention delegates and Presidential electors,' we would heartily be in favor of the idea. Does this sound undemocratic in view of the pledge of the party to elect all officers by primary system? Let's analyze the situation:

"First The Argus goes on to show that the party in this State has made no official enunciation of principles since the memorable convention of 1900 at Jacksonville. How can the party enunciate any principles unless it does so through a convention of delegates elected by the people? Can the executive committee act for the party in such a matter? Clearly we think not. Is the platform of the successful candidate for Governor to be accepted as the platform of the democracy of the State? It might be argued that as the successful candidate for Governor received a majority of all the Democratic votes cast in the election the platform of this particular candidate should be binding upon the people. If it is binding on the people then it ought, by any process of reasoning sought, be binding upon every member elected to the Legislature during the four years' tenure of office of this particular Governor, and those bodies should enact into law every plank in the Governor's platform upon which he went before the people, and upon which he was elected. If this is what the people mean by a platform then we have nothing more to say, except that the last two Legislatures have been derelict in their duty.

"The other reason for the holding of a State convention is almost as strong. Four years ago the ticket was so long that in some of the precincts of the State it kept the inspectors at work for several days checking and counting the ballots. In addition to all the State and county officers there will be candidates for one member of the National executive committee, ten delegates to the National convention, and candidates for members of the State executive committee and Presidential electors. If all of these were elected by a State convention it would reduce the size of the ticket in this year's primary considerable.

"But aside from the consideration of the reduction of the length of the ticket there is every reason why the delegates to the National convention should be elected in a State convention. If Mr. Bryan is the choice of a majority of the people of Florida, expressed through the delegates in convention assembled, then he should have the solid support of the delegation from this State. With the delegates to the convention elected in the primary Bryan delegates may win in the first and second Congressional districts and from among those who are candidates from the State at large, and Johnson, or Hearst, or Harmon delegates from the third Congressional district. Thus Mr. Bryan would be cut off from two votes that he should, by all the reasoning of Democratic rule heretofore, be entitled to, and this notwithstanding the fact that his delegates from the State at large might have carried the State by a vote of two or three to one.

"Someone is going to bob up now and say that if we consent to the holding of another State convention, no matter for what purpose, that it will be the means of abolishing the primary. But this is not so; the primary can only be abolished by a party vote in the primary. The convention could submit the question of abolishing the primary to a primary vote, but there would be little doubt as to the result of such a move.

"The Evening News thinks well of the suggestion of holding a State convention, and hopes that the State executive committee, which by the way Hon. Duncan U. Fletcher is going to call together some time this spring, will take up and consider this matter."

THE NIGHT RIDERS.

The tobacco war in Kentucky has been complicated by the Society of Equity resolving that "The night riders are common criminals and the worst enemies of the association, and that the statement of Governor Wilson that the society is responsible for recent raids on tobacco growers is utterly without foundation." The "night riders" are said to have very generally supported the Republican ticket at the last election, and it will be an uncomfortable political job for the new Republican Governor to preserve order and enforce the law.

Determined to make a fortune at one full swoop, a prominent citizen of Tampa is endeavoring to secure space at the fair for the greatest show on earth. He hopes to engage Col. Robert McNamee and Mrs. Carrie Nation for three dates on the liquor question, morning, noon and night, charging one dollar for each admission. The gentleman figures that after meeting all expenses, he will make not less than $175,000 on the deal. Carrie Nation, with her hatchet, and Robert McNamee, with his overcoat, would make the strongest drawing card in history of the amusement world.—Tampa Tribune.

Congressman Edwards of Georgia, a new Democratic member, says Congress is wasting its time, and introduced a resolution to fix 9 a. m. for convening instead of 12 o'clock noon. This unsophisticated gentleman evidently does not understand that the duty of a Republican Congress is to standpat and prevent anything valuable from being done.

Together they felled a tree, and in falling a limb from the tree caught upon and hung among the branches of another. The object of this new association is to care for the animal kingdom and inculcate kindness to bird and beast. These young ladies hope to enlist many others in the noble cause which they have espoused, thereby greatly increasing the membership.—St. Augustine Record.

T. Blake Walker died at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Lulu Walker, 242 Ormond street, Atlanta, Ga., of pneumonia. He was just entering his seventeenth year, and was a student at the Tech. He was a young man of unswerving integrity and a consistent member of St. John's Methodist church of Atlanta. His death brings unusual sadness in the fact that he was the only child of Mrs. Walker, who, with her two sisters, Mrs. Mary Liebert and Mrs. Z. Pelot, sold their home in McIntosh, Fla., and moved to Atlanta six months ago, in order that Blake might have the best of opportunities in meeting the issues of life.

There was a peculiar wreck on the A. C. L. afternoon train Saturday between Rochelle and Gainesville. The engineer saw two bulls, huge fellows, in deadly combat between the rails. He blew for them and was so sure they would get off the track that he did not slow-up in time and ran into them at a speed of twenty-five or thirty miles an hour. One of the animals was killed and rolled off the track, while the other was run over. The engine passed over him without leaving the track, but the balance of the train was derailed and badly smashed. Every car was off the track, the trucks of the baggage and express car being under the colored day coach. No one was seriously injured but many badly shaken up. The bull was ground literally into sausage, every car passing over him, and the remains were scattered for two hundred yards. The Palatka short carried the passengers from Rochelle to Ocala.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. PRIMARY IN LOUISIANA.

Election To Decide Who Shall Be Next Governor of State.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 29.—Louisiana held its democratic state primary election on Tuesday to select the next governor of the state. There were two candidates, J. Y. Sanders, at present lieutenant governor of Louisiana, and Theodore S. Wilkinson, a sugar planter. The state election occurs next April.

The primary campaign has been the cause of a special session of the legislature and of two personal controversies between prominent men, in which the preliminary steps of the dueling code were resorted to before settlements were reached. The special session of the legislature was confronted with rival reform proclamations by Governor Blanchard and by Lieutenant Governor Sanders. The combined results of these proclamations on the eve of election was to place Louisiana well up among the leaders of southern states in corporation reform legislation and save the state many thousands of dollars annually by great reductions in the revenues of certain political offices, principally in the tax department.

Prohibition, the continuance of horse racing and more stringent laws regarding dealing in cotton futures are among the problems with which this campaign has dealt, without, however, the drawing of sharply defined lines for or against such reforms.

WANT PRIVILEGE TO VOTE.

New York Women Planning Monster Street Parade to Show Strength.

New York, Jan. 29.—New York women who are interested in obtaining for themselves the right to vote are planning a monster street parade in order to show their strength.

The recent visit of representatives of the "militant suffragists" of England has created renewed interest among the advocates of equal suffrage in New York and several open air meetings have been held in Madison Square at which women have spoken in support of their cause. At a general meeting to be held arrangements will be made for the parade which is in contemplation.

It is hoped to have a very large turn out of women to parade through the principal streets bearing banners announcing their principles in the hope that this may be the means of interesting more women in the campaign and showing men that the women are determined in their efforts to secure equality before the law.

A Touch of Vanity.

On Nov. 25—St. Catherine's day—French girls who have passed their twenty-fifth birthday and are unmarried wear a little cap made of fine muslin, the symbol of maidhood. As the day approaches the millinery shops show these caps in great quantities, and their manufacture by young girls is always accompanied by jokes at the expense of old maids; but, strange to relate, these caps, because they are becoming to all, are worn on St. Catherine's day by young girls as well as by old maids.

COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attest its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulæ, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known, the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great, blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

A ROYAL DENTIST.

The Story of a Tooth Pulling by Peter the Great.

Peter the Great particularly delighted in drawing teeth, and he strictly enjoined his servants to send for him when anything of that sort was to be done. One day his favorite valet de chambre seemed very melancholy. The czar asked him what was the matter.

"Oh, your majesty," said the man, "my wife is suffering the greatest agony from toothache, and she obstinately refuses to have the tooth taken out."

"If that is all," said Peter, "we will soon cure it. Take me to her at once."

When they arrived the woman declared that she was not suffering at all; there was nothing the matter with her.

"That is the way she talks, your majesty," said the valet. "She is suffering tortures."

"Hold her head and hands," said the czar. "I will have it out in a minute." And he instantly pulled out the indicated tooth with great dexterity, amid profuse thanks from the husband.

What was Peter's indignation to discover a little later that his valet had used him as an executioner to punish his wife, who had never had an unsound tooth in her head.—Argonaut.

Improvement of Cattle in Florida

By John M. Scott, of Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture (Hon. B. E. McLin), gives as the total number of oxen and stock cattle in Florida on July 1, 1905, 708,078, and these cattle were valued at $4,789,187, which is a little over $7 a head. The same report states the number of pure-bred and grade cattle as follows: Herefords, 338; Shorthorns, 366; Devons, 88; Aberdeen-Angus, 12; making a total of 804, and valued at $27,519, averaging a little over $34 a head. These figures do not include cows kept for milk, and so the dairy breeds are not reckoned in.

GAIN BY GRADING-UP CATTLE.

A native three-year-old steer off grass weighs about 500 pounds, and would yield about 240 pounds of dressed meat worth 6 cents a pound, making its value $14.40. A grade three-year-old steer weighs about 800 pounds and would dress 450 pounds, which at 6 cents a pound is worth $27.00. Thus there is a difference in value of about $12.60 per head in favor of grade cattle at the present local market price of meat. If we take the Eastern market for a guide we find that the grade steer commands at least one cent a pound more than the native. At the price then of 7 cents per pound, a three-year-old grade steer will sell for more than double the sum that a native would fetch.

COST OF MAINTAINING.

The grade herd will perhaps cost 25 per cent. more to keep than the native herd, for a range that would support 100 head of native cattle can only support about 75 head of grade cattle. This is due to the grade being a larger animal, and hence requiring more food for maintaining and building up its body, just as a large horse requires more food than a pony.

That it costs more to raise a grade steer is no argument in favor of the native. There is a profit at the present time in keeping the native, but there is a larger profit in the grade. After deducting 25 per cent. for the greater cost of keeping, the value of the grade is still nearly double that of the native.

NEED OF BETTER CATTLE.

One of the best reasons for improving our cattle is that we might thus be enabled to produce enough beef to fully supply our home demand. By home demand we mean the beef consumed within the State of Florida. As already stated the grade steer produces nearly double as many pounds of beef, and beef of a better quality than does the native. If Florida produced all its own meat itself, this would mean the keeping at home of several hundred thousands of dollars each year, which would then be paid over to the stock farmers of the State.

IMPROVED BLOOD INCREASES MEAT YIELD.

The native cows or steers resemble animals of the dairy breeds with regard to beef production. They lack the width and thickness of loin, the round full quarter, and the thick, well-covered rib, all of which are so characteristic of animals bred for beef. The beef steer makes its increase in weight in these parts that are valuable for meat. The frame of the native is small and narrow, and though when it is fattened it makes a good gain in weight, yet the gain is made in those parts of the body that are of little food value, as the fat around the kidneys and viscera. The animal that makes the gain in weight in the valuable cuts, such as the loin, quarter, and rib, is naturally the most profitable.

GRADING-UP NOT DIFFICULT.

The improvement of cattle by grading up is not difficult. The one important point is the selection of a good sire. The sire should be a pure-bred animal of one of the beef breeds and not produced from a cross or mixture of breeds.

The usual objection is the cost of a pure-bred sire. This may be $100 or $150. True, this does seem a great price to one who is accustomed to purchase a native bull for $25.

If a farmer has a herd of fifty cows the increased value of the first lot of calves would more than pay for the pure-bred sire. Suppose that the first lot of calves from the pure-bred sire number thirty. At the end of three years the gain in selling price over native stock would be more than $300, or twice the cost of the sire. This leaves out of consideration the younger calves, and supposes that all are sold for beef, while in reality the heifers would be retained to improve the herd.

S.S.S. FORTY YEARS SUCCESSFUL SERVICE

When a medicine has stood the test for a period of more than two generations and is then more popular than ever, there can be no doubt of its merit. This is the record of S. S. S. Its period of existence is marked by a long line of cures of blood and skin diseases of every character, and its value in the treatment of such troubles has become so well known that it is today the most extensively used blood medicine on the market. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all other troubles due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal. It counteracts and drives out the poisons, humors and germs, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the disease permanently and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak or anaemic, and unable to furnish the body with the nourishment and strength it needs, S. S. S. supplies it with the healthful properties and acts splendidly in toning up and reinvigorating the system. It goes down to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches inherited taints on which the ordinary blood medicines have no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is at the same time an absolutely safe remedy. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of known healing and curative value. It does not contain the slightest trace of mineral in any form to damage the delicate parts of the system, and may be used by children with the same good results and perfect safety as by older people. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth by its forty years of successful service. If you are in need of a blood purifier for any cause begin the use of S. S. S., write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give without charge any special medical advice that is required.

WANT NEW TRIAL.

Endeavor Will Be Made to Annul the Verdict in Walsh Case.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—John R. Walsh, and his lawyers will take the initial step in their endeavor to annul the verdict of the jury that found Walsh guilty a week ago Saturday of misapplying funds of the Chicago National bank. District Judge A. B. Anderson of Indianapolis, who presided at the banker's trial, will hear a motion for a new trial in the federal court.

One of the principal points, it is said, that will be raised in support of the argument for a new trial is the attitude of Juror Elbert Palmer, of Harvard, Ills., who wept when the verdict was returned. The defending lawyers are prepared, it is said, to charge that Palmer was coerced into signing a verdict of guilty.

The fact that three jurors were ill at different periods also may be used as a ground for a new trial.

The shooting by Mrs. Beatrice Thomas Metcalf, of Terre Haute, in the federal building, by which it is charged she attempted to kill the late Samuel Hamill, one of Walsh's lawyers, may be made a point supporting the endeavor to obtain a new trial.

Attempted Rape Is Death.

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 29.—The lower house of the legislature has passed a bill providing the death penalty or life imprisonment for attempted rape, the punishment to be within the discretion of the jury. This places attempted rape in the same class with murder. Heretofore the maximum punishment has been ten years. The bill passed without opposition.

Two Thousand Delegates Present.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 29.—Two thousands delegates were in attendance Tuesday at the opening session of the twentieth annual convention of the Southwestern Lumber Men's association, wwhich is made up of lumber dealers of Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

For Coughs and Colds

Nearly all other Cough Cures are constipating, especially those containing opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup moves the bowels. Contains no opiates.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup

"A Cold or a Cough nearly always produces constipation—the water all runs to the eyes, nose and throat instead of passing out of the system through the liver and kidneys. For want of moisture the bowels become dry and hard."

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup relieves Colds by working them out of the system through a copious action of the bowels.

The laborers, who seemed to be of an industrious class, have saved their earnings, with the result that the majority of them have sufficient funds to tide them over the dull times.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.

FIGHT PROHI CAUSE

Organized Movement Has Started In New York.

BREWERS ARE BEHIND SAME

As Soon as Various Local Organizations Are Well Under Way They Will Be Formed into a National Organization—Strong Fight On.

New York, Jan. 29.—An organized movement against the wave of prohibition which is spreading over the country is now being made in New York and elsewhere.

The brewers and dealers in brewers' supplies and machinery are behind the movement and are organizing associations throughout the country, the object of which will be to fight the prohibition movement.

The organization in New York is known as the Manufacturers and Dealers' Club of Greater New York, and circulars have been sent to jobbing firms and men in the financial district in an effort to extend the membership throughout the business world.

It is proposed, as soon as the local organizations are well under way throughout the country, to organize them into a national organization. It is said that large numbers of business men are joining local organization. In this connection attention is called to a recently published statement of the distillers' securities corporation that while the prohibition movement lessened the consumption of beer it has had at the same time the effect of increasing the demand for stronger beverages.

JOHN D. COMES TO THEIR AID.

Many Unemployed Given Work on His Estate at Tarrytown.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Following the announcement that John D. Rockefeller had directed the superintendent of his estate at Pontotoc Hill to give work on the estate to the Tarrytown men who are out of employment, an army of the unemployed, the largest ever seen in this part of the state, marched down on the estate Monday. Many of them were from New York City and other places within a short distance.

The superintendent declined to furnish work for any of the applicants except those who live in Tarrytown or in the immediate vicinity of the estate, saying that it was necessary to take care of them first and that there was not work enough to take care of the unemployed from a distance.

EXPLORER WALLACE RETURNS.

Man Who Carried Dead Body of Comrade 400 Miles on His Shoulders.

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 29.—Dillon Wallace, the explorer and writer, the man who carried the dead body of the leader of the Hubbard expedition in Labrador 400 miles on his shoulders, has just returned from a journey through Mexico.

Congregation Balked at Dog Breeding.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29—Because a portion of his congregation objected to his breeding dogs, Rev. L. Moore Smith, pastor of the Scotch Plains Baptist church, has resigned his charge. Mr. Smith has been a lover of dogs all his life and when he took charge of the Scotch Plains church he established a kennel and devoted considerable time to the raising of fancy dogs which have won him many prizes at Bench shows.

Only Dogs Followed Her To Grave.

Florence, Italy, Jan. 29.—The funeral of Ouida was a most pitiful epilogue to her pitiful end. She died amid squalor and poverty, and her body was followed to the grave only by a dozen dogs she had starved herself to feed, and her faithful maid, to whom she left her last manuscripts. The body was buried in the English cemetery at Bagni di Lucca, and the spot is marked by a wooden cross.

ALABAMA FAVORS BRYAN.

Governor Comer and Friends May Control State Campaign Affairs.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 29.—It is regarded as certain that Governor B. B. Comer will be one of the delegates at large from Alabama to the national democratic convention at Denver; also that the friends of the governor and the followers of Mr. Bryan will control absolutely in the party affairs in the state this year. It is pretty well established that Governor Comer is to keep in line for candidacy for one of the senatorial vacancies later on, and his friends believe that he will not let the complete grip which he has on the party organization at this time escape him.

That the governor is going to run for the senate is generally understood among those closest to him.

The state committee is in the hands of the governor and his friends. He will be able to do what he pleases with it. It is conceded that it will order a primary, but the impression is that the delegates selected by it will be left to name the twenty-two delegates which Alabama is to have in the national meeting. There has been some talk of voting direct for the delegates, but this is going to meet with little support, it is now thought. The outlook is that, left free, the convention will select a full list of Comer-Bryan men.

TORNADO CUTS SWATH.

One Person Killed, Others Hurt and Damage Done in Tennessee.

Sweetwater, Tenn., Jan. 29—A severe cyclone raged in Pond Creek valley, near Sweetwater, Sunday night, killing one and injuring five others, one of whom is believed to be fatally hurt. James M. Cassidy, of Blue Springs, eight miles from Sweetwater, was killed and his wife was perhaps fatally injured. Their residence was demolished by the storm. Edward Everett, who lives at Pond Creek, 4 miles from Sweetwater, lost his home, it being swept away by the cyclone.

Three of his children and his wife were badly injured. Everett himself escaped unhurt. Wiley Sliger's barn, at Philadelphia, Tenn., was blown down, and two horses were killed. Israel Lenoir, of Philadelphia, lost a barn and two cows. Joseph Porter and George McCreary, also of Philadelphia, lost a barn each. Several residences in the path of the storm were more or less damaged. The cyclone moved in a northwesterly direction. It covered a distance of about eight miles, and was but a short distance in width.

Hancock Case to Roosevelt.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The case of Major William F. Hancock, coast artillery corps, stationed at Fort Barancas, Fla., has been received at the war department for the action of the president. Major Hancock was tried by courtmartial at Atlanta, Ga., on charges growing out of his alleged violation of a pledge to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquor.

Dug Up Old Roman Coin.

Springfield, Mass., Jan. 29.—While digging for angle worms for bait some time ago, J. B. Hamilton turned up an old copper coin which he has now discovered to be worth some $1,500. The coin is a Roman one, bearing Latin inscriptions and a wreathed head. It was coined in 249 B. C. Mr. Hamilton refuses to part with it.

Violin for King Edward.

Brocton, Mass., Jan. 29.—A violin, which will be the property of King Edward of England, has just been completed by Archibold McIntosh, a violin maker in Brookville. The instrument is made of curly maple, the wood having been taken from an ancient table, once the property of the Duke of Kent.

Farmer Mysteriously Disappears.

Waigham, Ga., Jan. 29—Hiram Maxwell, one of the leading citizens and a prosperous farmer of this community, residing about four miles to the northwest of here, is said to have disappeared very mysteriously from his home. He had some trouble with a negro on his plantation a few days ago and it is feared that foul play has been done to him.

SHIP'S CREW IN PERIL

Ten Huge Waterspouts Encountered In Gulf of Mexico.

VESSEL'S NARROW ESCAPE

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 29.—Ten waterspouts encountered in the gulf stream impeded the progress of the Norwegian steamer Cecilia, which has arrived here from Caragena by way of Tusks island.

The Cecilia was off the Carolinas last Friday when the hurricane which brought death and destruction swept up the coast. For twelve hours the vessel was buffeted about, receiving no more damage than the loss of a few deck movables.

In the wake of the hurricane came the waterspouts. The first was seen on the starboard and its large size brought terror to the crew. The captain evaded the spout only to find the vessel apparently getting in the track of another.

From port to starboard, over a course extending five miles, the Cecilia was steered until ten huge waterspouts were eluded.

BIG ARMY DEPOT.

War Department Takes Steps to Secure Site for Same.

San Francisco, Jan. 29.—The Examiner says that the war department authorities have taken definite steps to secure a site here for the biggest United States army depot in the country. It is to be located on part of the existing army reservation at Fort Mason, and then run northerly on land at present submerged.

This submerged land is owned by the Dore family of this city, and Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and her sister, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., of New York.

The land is to be condemned in the United States circuit court. Assistant United States District Attorney Clark has perfected a suit for that purpose. Congress has already appropriated $1,500,000 to pay for the site and filling in the submerged section.

SIGNED BY OFFICIALS.

Franco-American Reciprocity Arrangement—Concession to France.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Secretary Root and Ambassador Jusserand have signed the Franco-American reciprocity arrangement drawn under section 3 of the Dingley act.

The agreement concedes to France an abatement of twenty per cent in the duties on champagne and sparkling wines imported into America. For its part, the French government confirms the minimum tariff rate now accorded to American products. Provision also is made for appointment of a commission of three members on each side to consider and report upon possible amendments to the existing trade regulations in both France and America to facilitate exchange.

Flotilla at Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 29.—The officers of the American torpedo boat flotilla, who arrived here Sunday from Rio Janeiro, were received Tuesday by President Alcoria and the ministers of war, marine and foreign affairs. President Alcoria spoke pleasantly to each of the officers, and to Lieutenant Cone, who is in command of the flotilla, he expressed his great pleasures and satisfaction in the visit to the Argentine of the American warships. To these words of welcome, Lieutenant Cone made a suitable reply.

WANT PRIVILEGE TO VOTE.

New York Women Planning Monster Street Parade to Show Strength.

New York, Jan. 29.—New York women who are interested in obtaining for themselves the right to vote are planning a monster street parade in order to show their strength.

The recent visit of representatives of the "militant suffragists" of England, has created renewed interest among the advocates of equal suffrage in New York and several open air meetings have been held in Madison Square at which women have spoken in support of their cause. At a general meeting to be held arrangements will be made for the parade which is in contemplation.

It is hoped to have a very large turn out of women to parade through the principal streets bearing banners announcing their principles in the hope that this may be the means of interesting more women in the campaign and showing men that the women are determined in their efforts to secure equality before the law.

Judge Mason's Court.

There was an unusual turn in the tide of affairs in the court of County Judge Mason Wednesday, when George Adkins, a white man, was arraigned upon a charge of vagrancy, and was sentenced to three months in the county prison. This was an unusual occurrence in this court, being the first case of the kind since the vagrancy law went into effect.

Adkins was arrested by Marshal Arnow near the Tampa and Jacksonville passenger depot. Adkins stopped the marshal and asked him for a match, which resulted in his arrest.

Adkins stated that he was from Michigan. He appeared able-bodied, but stated that there was no work in the North, and he decided to come South. He had been unable to find employment here, he said, and it was either beg or starve.

Marshal Arnow, judging from the man's demeanor, declared that he believed he had never looked for work, as men of his physique are in demand everywhere.

Adkins will have a job for the next three months, at least.

TRAGEDY OF THE SEA

Six Persons Perished In Attempt to Save Tug's Crew.

CAUGHT IN TERRIFIC STORM

Thrilling Story of the Loss of the White Band and Her Crew Off the Delaware Breakwater—A Blinding Snowstorm Added to Terrors.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 29.—Their last act an attempt to save the crew of the tug M. E. Scully from death by drowning, four men and two women perished off Delaware Breakwater last Saturday morning, where the barge White Band, bound from Newport News for this city, sank during the terrible gale which swept the coast. The story of the loss of the White Band and her crew was told by Captain Henry W. Gegg, of the Scully, when the tug arrived in port with the barge New Jersey in tow.

The Scully, bound from Newport News for Providence, with the barges White Band and New Jersey, both coal laden, in tow, when off Delaware Breakwater Friday night, ran into a terrific northwest gale. The New Jersey's crew cut the hawser and anchored, while the Scully hove to, with the White Band still fastened to the hawser. Owing to snow, it was impossible to see more than a few feet or to communicate with the barge.

During the night the captain of the Scully felt the hawser part and examination showed that it had been cut on the White Band's end of the line. It is believed on board the Scully that when the captain and the crew of the White Band knew their craft was sinking they deliberately cut the hawser to save the Scully from being dragged beneath the sea.

When the Scully finally was able to proceed to sea again she found a lot of wreckage which was positively identified as belonging to the White Band.

MISSISSIPPI LEVEES.

Senator Davis Wants the Government To Take Charge.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Senator Jefferson Davis has prepared a bill to put the levee system of the Mississippi river in the hands of the government, which he will introduce this week. By means of a sufficient appropriation he proposes that the government shall take over the present levees and proceed to maintain them. The bill also will provide for the appropriation of money to drain the sunken lands in the Mississippi basin.

Senator Davis maintains that it is as much the duty of the government to maintain the Mississippi levees and drain the lowlands thereabouts as it is to expend money to reclaim arid lands of the west.

KAISER WILHELM'S BIRTHDAY.

Subjects of German Ruler Celebrate the Occasion.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Emperor William Monday was 49 years of age. He was "awakened" Monday morning, according to the immemorial birthday custom, by fanfaring by the palace trumpeter and the singing of a hymn by the castle choir at 5 o'clock. His majesty, dressed in a field marshal uniform, greeted the choristers and received the congratulations of the visiting princes, after which there was service in the private chapel of the palace.

Pet Dog Saved Master.

Great Barrington, Mass., Jan. 29.—A pet dog jumping upon the bed of J. H. Fell, awakened the man barely in time for him to escape from his burning house, together with his dog and two servants. The dog, which had awakened its master, perished.

A ROUSING MEETING OF COUNTY UNION

J. E. Fugate of Alachua Elected President.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM MANIFESTED

New President Makes Good Speech of Acceptance—A Feast Prepared by Good Ladies of the West End Which Was Fit for the Gods.

Bell, Jan. 28.—One of the most enthusiastic meetings of the County Union of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America ever held in Alachua county was held with Jaxville Local, three miles southeast of Bell, there being over 500 people present.

First on the program was the installation of officers, the same being public, and the house could not hold the crowd. The first to be installed was our new county president, J. E. Fugate, who spoke to the officers and members as follows:

"Brothers, I thank you for the high compliment paid me in placing me in the highest position within the gift of our great order, and ask your indulgence in any mistakes that I might make and assure you that such mistakes will be from the head and not from the heart. It will be my earnest endeavor to carry on this great work and build up Alachua County Union until it stands ahead of all other county unions in the State, and I ask not only the help of my fellow officers, but the earnest co-operation of every member in the county. Without your help I will be as helpless to carry on this great work as an infant babe upon its mother's breast.

"Let us so live and conduct our lives that our union will stand out conspicuously to the world as a guarantee for honesty, friendship and brotherly love.

"Brothers, let's every one of us right here make a new resolve to enter into this great work with a determination to build up this great union as it has never been built up before, and let's commence right here by cultivating more friendship and brotherly love.

"Oh, what a difference some friend has made in the lives of most of us. How many men and women have been kept from suicide by the thought that someone loved them, believed in them! How many have preferred to suffer tortures to dishonoring or disappointing their friends! The thrill of encouragement which has come from the pressure of a friendly hand or an encouraging word has proved the turning point in many a life. So now to you, brother officers, I say, as we are about to enter upon the duties of our offices, let's enter upon them with a vim and an energy that will accomplish something, so that the confidence and trust our brothers and friends have placed in us will not be regretted by them. Many a man endures hardships and suffers privations and criticisms in the hope of winning at last for the sake of his friends, of those who love him, believe in him and see in him what others do not, when if he had only himself to consider he would give up.

"Again I thank you."

Each officer installed made short talks, among the most important of which was that of F. B. Love, county organizer and lecturer, who dwelt upon the short time Alachua county had been organized and how much had been accomplished in that time in the way of organization. He said we must not lose sight of the old officers, as to them was due our success to date, and he was afraid we had not showed our appreciation to them as we ought to have done, especially to our retiring president, Brother Gay, as to him was due most of our success, and that he had borne the brunt of the fight.

The house was then cleared of all but members and delegates, and President Fugate appointed the following committee on credentials: T. A. Gay, M. M. May and J. B. Snyder, and while these were at work we had a good talk from our Brother, County Commissioner J. W. Mathews, on the good the order.

The committee then made its report, and it being so near the noon hour, President Fugate made a few recommendations for the delegates to take under consideration, of which some of the most important was the reduction of the cotton acreage and raising of more feed crops, thereby producing our cotton free from debt. He said everyone should take their county paper and keep posted on county affairs, all should take their union paper and keep posted on their union, also at least one agricultural paper, and recommended The Southern Ruralist as doing more to educate the farming class on scientific farming than any other paper in the South. Brother Fugate dwelt briefly upon each subject and it was easily observed that he had the audience with him in each instance. Adjournment was then taken for dinner.

Mr. Editor, you ought to have been there; such a bounteous spread, prepared by the good ladies of the surrounding country was never before placed before man. If Mr. Speculator ever thought for a moment that he could starve the farmer to death, had he peeped over the table there he would have changed his mind.

After dinner the house was called to order and the newly-elected secretary and treasurer, J. W. Carlisle, having arrived, was installed. Brother Griffin, secretary and treasurer of Jaxville Local, who had been acting as secretary pro tem, was retained as assistant, Brother Carlisle not being well.

The retiring secretary and treasurer having arrived also, Brother G. H. Gibbons and B. D. Weeks were appointed as a committee to audit his books, which they did and reported as follows:

"We, your committee, beg to submit the following report: We find that the secretary and treasurer's books have been kept in a neat and business-like manner and all moneys properly accounted for."

Brothers J. L. Mathis and W. H. Hayes were appointed to entertain the ladies and non-union visitors with talks on good of the order, in the school house nearby.

Business was disposed of in rotation as fast as possible and in a harmonious manner.

During the discussion of a subject on the good of the order the debate waxed warm and enthusiastic.

Brothers Mathis, Love, Hayes, Parkhill and Fugate made some of the most enthusiastic speeches ever made in Alachua County Union since it was organized.

Brother Hayes won with flying colors, his motion having been carried 22 to 11. The meeting then adjourned subject to call of the president.

Everyone was loth to leave such kind hospitality as their West End brothers showed them.

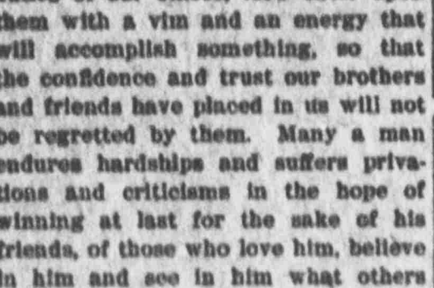
HIGHMAN'S CONDITION POWDER



CARRIE NATION IN POLK.

Came Very Near Being Put Out of Business.

The redoubtable Carrie Nation, of hatchet fame, passed through Lakeland Tuesday night en route for Tampa. Her visit to the State was quite unexpected, as she came unhearalded. She is at present visiting friends at Bradentown, and she expects to remain in the State several weeks, working for the cause of prohibition.

A Lakeland gentleman who came down on the same train that conveyed Mrs. Nation tells an incident of the trip illustrative of this good lady's remarkable methods of winning people over to her way of thinking. Passing through the smoker to the day-coach she noticed a massave Arcadia Cracker with a cigar in his mouth. The man was bending forward, wiping his hands with a handkerchief, and the first intimation he had of the lady's presence was when someone struck the cigar a blow that sent it flying across the car, exclaiming, "Take that nasty thing out of your mouth, and quit that disgusting habit," or words to that effect.

The rich, Southern blood of the Arcadian rose to the occasion, and without stopping to "consider the source," he drew back a mighty fist to annihilate his would-be reformer—sometimes called a "butt-in." A companion hastily interfered: "Don't strike, John! It's a woman."

John paused, fist in air. "Well, by—gum (this is not the word John used, but it will serve here); so she be! If ye hadn't been a woman, I'd a stomped ye to the floor!"

Mrs. Nation decided to allow the Cracker to smoke the pipe of peace in peace and hastily retreated to another car.—Lakeland News.

The Stork at Island Grove.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baker, Island Grove, was brightened an January 12th by the arrival of a fine baby girl.

Just a year ago last December the angel of death entered their home and carried away little Earle, their only child, a bright little boy of fourteen months, leaving them sad and lonely.

We know there will always be one vacant place in their hearts and home, still we hope there is just as warm a place for this little one, and may it be spared to brighten its fond parents' lives, and may they guide its little feet aright so that in the end it will meet Little Brother Earle, who is waiting in his heavenly home for his loved ones on earth.

Baraca-Philathea Entertainment.

On last Friday evening a very delightful entertainment was given by the union Baraca and Philathea classes of the Methodist and Baptist churches at the Seminary building. The members were very pleasantly received by Misses Fennell and DaCosta, and Mr. Carlisle.

The program of the evening consisted of a piano duet by Misses Fennell and Pound; vocal solos by Miss Mary DaCosta and Miss Bennett; a comical monologue by Mr. Dayton, and informal talks by Messrs. Pepper and Macy.

After the program refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickels, olives, cakes, fudge and punch were served.

It is needless to say that the evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

SUMMER LOG CAMPS HAVE CLOSED DOWN

Lack of Orders for Lumber Causes Action of Operators.

BIG MILL IS ALSO CLOSED DOWN

Several Hundred Men Thrown Out of Employment which is Bound to Effect Mercantile Interests of County. Naval Stores Continues.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

About the severest blow to this section that the money panic, which has been on in the North for the past few months, has wrought, was the closing down of all the timber camps in Alachua county owned and controlled by the Cummer Lumber Company. This announcement was made Monday by one of the prominent attaches of the Cummer Company, who stated that the action of the Cummers was due to the lack of orders from Northern concerns, to whom the company had been supplying lumber in large quantities.

Not only the timber camps of the Cummer company have been closed indefinitely, but the big sawmill in Jacksonville, which is the largest in the State, has also shut down, pending the receipt of sufficient business to keep the big plant in operation.

By the cessation of these industries, hundreds of men are thrown out of employment, for the present, at least. In the various timber camps of this county, including tramways, etc., there has been employed several hundred men at good salaries, and naturally this will be felt throughout the county.

The mill at Jacksonville also employed a large number of men, who must either seek work elsewhere or wait for an indefinite period upon the reopening of this mill. The capacity of the plant is said to be 150,000 feet per day.

The naval stores department of the Cummer company, which is extensive throughout the West End, will not be effected by the closing down of the timber camps.

OFF ON A HUNT.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Sheriff L. W. Fennell of this city, who is one of the most enthusiastic and ambitious hunters in the State, has gone with his brother, John Fennell, of Melrose, and other friends, to the swamps of the Ocklawaha river, where they expect to make a big "haul" within the next two or three days.

Sheriff Fennell stated on the occasion of his last trip that he believed there was plenty of deer and bear in that section, but for some reason the party with which he was associated seemed unable to get them. With this feeling of confidence he returned to the grounds, and feels sure this time there will be "something doing."

Will Make Improvements.

The managers of The Dutton Bank contemplate making some extensive interior improvements in a short time, and with this end in view they are having the stairway leading to the second floor of their building transferred to a point between that building and the United States land office, which will afford more room in the interior of the bank building for improvements.

The stairway now being erected will be of steel, and will lead to a bridgeway running from the land office to the bank building, and which the plans provide will be used by the occupants of both buildings.

JONESVILLE JOTTINGS.

Jonesville, Jan. 27.—H. A. Pickett has returned home, after a pleasant visit to his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Fowler, of Greenville.

The many friends of Mrs. Miller and daughter, Elsie, and Mrs. H. A. Pickett, will regret to hear that they are very ill with la grippe.

C. W. Griffin of Jacksonville visited friends and relatives here last week.

J. W. Miller of Newberry visited his parents here Sunday.

Mrs. N. E. Andrews and little son, and Mrs. Warden of Tioga, visited at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hamilton here last week.

The little infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Spires was laid to rest in Jonesville cemetery last Wednesday. Their many friends sympathize with them in their bereavement.

There will be a box supper at Mrs. Hamilton's on Friday evening, January 31st. It is given for the benefit of Jonesville church. All are invited to come. You will be as "welcome as the flowers in May."

S. B. McGill of Colee was here on "business" last week.

W. J. Hamilton of Newberry visited here Monday.

Some of our good folks are taking advantage of this cold weather, and are having a hog-killing and sausage-stuffing.

Miss Lizzie Griffin attended church in Newberry Sunday. She was badly missed at Sunday school Sunday.

The writer has been silent for about two months and neglected to send in what we Jonesville folks were doing; but let me say that one of our best and jolliest young men, Dixie Jones, slipped over to Wacahoota, December 25th, and claimed as his bride Miss Bradshaw. It was quite a surprise to all Dixie's friends, but we wish them much happiness in their married life.

Rev. Geo. Taylor of High Springs preached at Jonesville Sunday.

THE TRUTH OF HISTORY.

(Live Oak Democrat.)

We all saw the dispatch which went the rounds of the papers the other day, stating that Lewis Lindsay, a Richmond Virginia, negro, who sat on the jury which tried Jafferson Davis, had just died in that city, aged 93. Many of us knew that it was pure fiction that the negro had been on any such jury, but many more who have come to maturity since those days, did not know it. In the last issue of The Bartow Courier-Informant General Law, who helped to make history in the great war, takes this dispatch as the text for a strong article, not only showing how false the story is, but giving additional facts which should be thoroughly known all over this country, North and South, in the interest of the historical truth and justice. From that article we take the following:

"Mr. Davis was ready and anxious to be tried, but the Government was not ready for trial. It never intended that the Confederate cause should be vindicated before the world as it would have been then and has been since, in the eyes of all fair-minded students of history, even in the North. Horace Greeley, Gerritt Smith, Cornelius Vanderbilt and other noted Northern abolitionists rushed down to Richmond and made a bond of $100,000 for his appearance before the court when summoned. But he was never summoned. They didn't want him. He was the kind of criminal (!!!) they feared and were glad to let go. They preferred to stand off and blacken his character and his cause through their newspapers, their magazines and their histories. Until his death, a quarter of a century later, he stood as a mark for all the shafts of enmity and malice aimed at his cause, his country and his people. But for this, his country-men of the South only gathered closely around him as, venerable alike in years and honor, he stood among them like some tall mountain peak whose snow-crowned head reflecting the light of a glorious pact caught also the first rays of that sun of righteousness and justice in whose light the future generations will read, his among 'the immortal names that were not born to die.' After a long and thorough investigation by the authorities at Washington, in which Chief Justice Chase and the most eminent legal authorities of the country took part, it was decided that the charge of treason could not be maintained, and the case against Mr. Davis was nolle prossed in December, 1868. Thus ended Jefferson Davis' 'trial.'"

RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PANIC.

Have you asked your Republican neighbors how they like this business depression and breakdown of the guaranteed Republican prosperity? If the protective tariff is such a sure cure for hard times and Republican financial policies are necessary to prevent panics, how can they explain present conditions? It is nonsense to say that this was a Wall Street panic, brought on for political purposes, for the financiers who run Wall Street affairs are too smart to ruin themselves, and they have suffered enormously. Panicy conditions have reached the most stable and distant fields. Judge Sinclair of Nebraska, when in Washington a week ago, declared that "the West is well fixed financially. None of the banks in his town was pressed for cash during the recent flurry," but added this Republican authority: "They adopted limited payments, but did not need to do it." Now any bank that adopted "limited payments," which is another way of saying it stopped cash payments, was certainly helping the panic, and making it more distressing and was more to blame than the frenzied financiers of Wall Street who are actually unable to meet the demands of their depositors. It is almost a certainty that those banks at Kearney, Nebraska—for that is the home of the Republican politician who favors the country with his extraordinary statement above quoted—are run by Republicans. Were those Nebraska bankers in league with the New York banks to produce and prolong the panic? If they refused to pay their depositors when they were not "pressed for cash," they committed, if not a crime against the banking laws of the United States, a most despicable outrage against their depositors and the people generally. As the banks generally refused to pay cash to their depositors, were they also in collusion with the New York banks to help indicate to the people that certain policies of the Roosevelt administration were panic breeders? In any event there is no escape for the Republican party, whatever produced the panic. The coming Republican National Convention will endorse Roosevelt and all his doings, it will endorse Republican policies and point with pride to the prosperity of the trusts and corporations as one of the most conspicuous merits of Republican ascendency. But still the glaring fact will have to be explained by our Republican friends why the panic occurred under Republican policies, with all departments of the Government under their full control for the past ten years. What assurance can the Republican party offer that further panics will not follow, if they are again entrusted with power? And with what face can they again declare that Republican policies are "panic proof?"

Hon. John W. Denham, at one time member of the Legislature from Marion county, died in Monticello on the 23rd inst. Mr. Denham was for several years publisher of The Key West Citizen, afterwards publishing a paper at Pensacola, but for the past four years has been employed in the pension department in the Comptroller's office at Tallahassee. He was a brother of Capt. W. B. Denham, formerly superintendent of the Florida Southern Railway, and now general manager of the Tampa Northern.

M. S. Lehman, a nurseryman in Marion county, by grafting an apple into a haw tree has produced an apple of excellent flavor and entirely free of seeds. They are said to be small in size, but a very valuable fruit. The wonders of the Florida soil and climate are just beginning to be seen.—Live Oak Democrat.

And now the Nevada Legislature, after all scoldings that Roosevelt has given Governor Sparks, complacently requests the President to keep the troops in Goldfield in the face of his indignant order for their withdrawal. The presumption of the legislators certainly should impress him.

WHO WILL BUY?

P. J. Hanley of Washington, Ia., has prepared and sent to The Commoner the following interesting matter which he suggests that Republican politicians might use as a hand bill:

PUBLIC SALE.

Our lease with Uncle Sam having practically expired, and having decided to quit the business and retire to private life, we, the undersigned, will offer at public sale at out residence, at the Capitol in Washington, D. C., commencing on the second day of December, 1907, the following described property, towit:

One elephant, about forty-five years old.

One financial panic, old enough to be weaned.

One Republican platform, the same being somewhat rotten.

One big stick.

One Republican machine, the same being somewhat out of repair.

One financial system.

Fifty million Teddy Bears; and other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms of sale, cash.

G. O. P., OWNERS.
Rockefeller & Morgan, Clerks.
Wall Street, Auctioneer.

While it is believed by many that most of the above mentioned articles will be purchased as relics by the standpatters, still I have been informed on good authority that it is the earnest desire of the G. O. P. that the Democratic party be present at the sale and thus show their interest and goodwill in the same, even though they don't see anything which they care to purchase.—Bryan's Commoner.

The death of Hon. R. H. M. Davidson of Quincy is universally regretted. It was the pleasure of the writer to have known him since the early seventies, when he was a power against the black phalanx in Florida. In 1876 Col. Davidson was nominated and elected on the Democratic ticket as a member of Congress from what was then the first district of Florida, defeating the notorious W. J. Purman of Monticello. There was never a more affable, courteous gentleman in the State than Col. Davidson, and he was a power for good when the white element of Florida needed the services of such men during the seventies. He represented the first district in Congress for seven consecutive terms—14 years.

Hon. Dannitte H. Mays of Monticello, who was speaker of the House of Representatives of the Florida Legislature in 1897 and a candidate for Governor in 1904, has announced his candidacy for Congress from the third district to succeed Hon. W. B. Lamar, who desires promotion to the Senate. Dannitte Mays is one of the best men in Florida and will prove an important factor in the Congressional race in the third district.

Were it not for its tragic feature the story of the woman drugged with candy in a New York theater box would suggest the nimble mind of a press agent. Doubtless the official inquiry will disclose misdirected stage aspirations on the part of someone

The presence of such a large aggregation of colored ministers from every section which have been gathered together here at the conference of the A. M. E. Church, assumes the nature of an object lesson to the more shiftless brother of the negro race. These men, in the majority of cases, have labored arduously in an effort to reform and elevate the lower element of their race, and if their advice was heeded there would be need for fewer jails and penitentiaries. Education is the backbone of virtue and character, and until the negro decides to educate himself he can look for and expect but little. Those negroes who, through high ambition, have become educated and are trying to turn their race from the downward road, deserve credit, and the better element of white people are willing to assist them.

Col. Bryan made a mistake in going to Kentucky in behalf of Governor Beckham's candidacy for the United States Senate. The Democrats of Kentucky are badly split, and those of the party who are opposed to Beckham will "get back" at the Colonel should he be nominated for President. The Beckham ring in Kentucky has done more to disrupt the Democratic party in that State than all other influences combined. He was not fairly nominated in the primary, and many of the leading Democrats of the State will resort to any fair means to defeat him.

BRUTAL MURDER OF ELIAS SAPP

Well Known Citizen of Jonesville Was Waylaid and Killed.

GOING HOME FROM NEWBERRY

In the Edge of Town Assassin Slipped Up from Behind and Emptied Contents of Double-Barrel Shotgun in Back of His Head.

From Wednesday's Daily:

One of the most cowardly assassinations every known in the history of Alachua county occurred on the outskirts of Newberry, in the West End, shortly after dark Monday night, the victim being Elias Sapp, about seventy years of age, an old and well-known citizen of the Jonesville section, where he has resided on a farm for many years.

No definite particulars of the killing could be ascertained, as nothing definite, according to telephone communication with The Sun, has yet developed.

The body was found in the road leading from Newberry to Jonesville about 7 o'clock Tuesday by passers-by, and the matter was at once reported to the authorities at Newberry.

According to the best information that could be secured, it appears that Mr. Sapp, whose farm is about three miles east of Newberry, went to Newberry trading Monday. He was riding horseback. Upon arriving in town Mr. Sapp hitched his horse to one of the racks so familiar upon the streets of a country town, and went about his business. It was about dark when he decided to return home, and upon going to the rack where his horse had been left he discovered that the animal was gone.

There was nothing to do but to walk home, consequently Mr. Sapp, according to friends, started out cheerfully.

When a short distance from Newberry, possibly three hundred yards, some party slipped up behind Mr. Sapp and discharged the contents of a double-barrel shotgun in the back of his head. Death must have been instantaneous, as the head was horribly mutilated when the body was discovered.

Notwithstanding the early hour in which this crime was committed, the report of the gun did not seem to alarm the people of the vicinity, as no investigation was apparently made of the same. However, it may be that the constant discharging of firearms in the vicinity has accustomed the people to such reports, and they think nothing of it.

Immediately after being notified of the finding of the body, Coroner E. T. Henderson empanelled a jury, proceeded to the scene and viewed the body. The day was spent in investigation, when the jury adjourned until Wednesday morning to complete its investigation.

Deceased was one of the most widely known residents of that section of the county, and was a man well liked by everyone. The murder was not evidently committed for the purpose of robbery, as money and other possessions were found on the person of deceased.

Mr. Sapp was a widower, but is survived by one son, Samuel, and two daughters, Miss Annie Sapp and Mrs. Long.

This tragedy has cast a gloom over the entire community, as deceased was a man of even disposition, clever temperament, and was in all regarded as one of the best citizens of the section in which he resided.

PROSPECTIVE BUILDINGS.

Prof. Blair and Others Will Erect Handsome Homes Near University.

The building boom in the vicinity of the University grounds seems to have taken on new life, as several new buildings are reported for that section soon. During the past few months a number of handsome and expensive residences have been completed in that section, which would do credit to any city in the country.

Among those about to be erected is a residence for Prof. A. W. Blair, of the experimental farm, who will build on West Liberty. Prof. N. H. Cox, it is also understood, will erect a neat home, while Mr. Lewis, the electrician, contemplates the erection of a neat cottage in that vicinity.

SPRING PARK FARM AT THE STATE FAIR

Manager Callison Will Have Fine Display at Tampa This Year.

WELL PLEASED WITH OUTLOOK

Says Every Indication at This Time Points to Fact That Fair Will be a Success—Grounds Cleaned and Repaired—Races a Great Feature.

N. A. Callison, manager of the famous Spring Park Stock Farm, located about nine miles west of Gainesville, and which is one of the largest and finest in the Southern States, has returned from Tampa, where he has been for the past two or three days for the purpose of arranging for the annual exhibit of cattle and stock from the Spring Park Farm at the State Fair, which will be held in February, beginning February 5th.

Manager Callison has always manifested a great interest in the State Fair, not only from the standpoint of his own interests and displays, but for the general welfare of the county. Last year he was the general commissioner from Alachua county, and succeeded by his energy and clever work in carrying off half of the first or grand prize, while those who were familiar with the situation declared he was entitled to the prize as a whole. In addition to the individual exhibits from Spring Park Farm, he succeeded in getting together a large collection, representing the various farming, horticultural, manufacturing, mining and commercial interests of the county, and had them tastefully arranged. This exhibit, which occupied a prominent position in the main building, attracted the attention of ninety per cent. of the thousands of visitors to the fair, with the result that Alachua received a good share of advertising from the venture.

While the county will have no exhibit as a county at the coming State Fair, Manager Callison, who has already carried off many premiums, expects to make a good exhibit. He will take three carloads of cattle and stock, including Herefords and Jerseys, Berkshires, Angora goats, and other fancy stock.

"We expect to have a better native display than ever this year," remarked Manager Callison, in speaking of the cattle, "because we have had time to grow, and will have more native cattle on the ground than at any previous time. I feel sure that our native cattle will make a fine showing at this fair."

Manager Callison is very ambitious in his efforts to introduce a better grade of cattle into this section. Through his generosity, at the Farmers' Institute, which will be held in this city on February 5, 6 and 7, and at which farmers and stockmen from every section of the State are expected, there will be a practical lecture on cattle, the Herefords being supplied from Spring Park Farm. Not only will this prove of great benefit to those in attendance, but the herd from Spring Park Farm will be exhibited at the Institute for a couple of days, February 6 and 7, after which the cattle will be shipped direct to the State Fair, leaving here on the 8th.

At the close of the State Fair, Manager Callison will take his exhibit to Jacksonville, where they will be seen to advantage at the Florida Mid-Winter Exposition for a week or two. This exhibit is bound to prove of great interest to the thousands of visitors at this exposition.

Manager Callison stated that he was very well pleased with the outlook for the State Fair. The grounds are being cleared and improved preparatory to the opening, the buildings are being repainted and other improvements made. From present indications all space in the main building will be taken, and the racing feature promises to be the best ever seen in Florida, as a number of fine race horses of national reputation have already arrived.

A Business Change.

There has been a change in the Gainesville 5 and 10-Cent Store, A. M. Dickson having disposed of his interest in the business to Saunders & Earle.

Miss Anita MacDonell will in future be in charge of the business as manager, while Miss Nellie Goss will be head saleslady. A few changes are contemplated, among which will be the enlarging of the stock and extension of the lines.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the appoval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

DEATH OF JOHN M'CREDIE.

Well-Known and Popular Resident of Ocala Passed Away Suddenly.

Information reached this city Wednesday night of the death of John McCredie, which occurred suddenly at his home in Ocala on Tuesday night, having expired while he was reading a newspaper.

The cause of the death is described as acute indigestion. Mr. McCredie was enjoying his usual health at supper, but after the meal, when he sat down to read his paper, complained of feeling badly. He assured those about him, however, that it was nothing serious—only a pain in the side which would soon pass away. It was only a few moments before he reeled in his chair and passed away.

Deceased was seventy-four years of age. He was born in Scotland, but has been in America for many years, the greater part of his life being spent in Micanopy, where he reared an interesting family. He was well known and popular in that section, and his death will be regretted by all who knew him.

A few months ago Mr. McCredie moved with his family to Ocala. At the time of his death he had just returned from a visit to relatives in Micanopy.

Deceased is survived by a large number of relatives in the vicinity of Micanopy.

The funeral will be held at Micanopy this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Dodge, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Ocala.

Mrs. Read from Cedar Key.

The lady, Mrs. Yulee Read, who was the victim of a purse-snatcher in Jacksonville Monday night, and who was reported to The Metropolis as being from Gainesville, was not from this city, but from Cedar Key.

Mrs. Read is a daughter of Ex-Senator David Yulee, an old and highly respected citizen, builder of the railroad from Fernandina to Cedar Key, and one of the pioneer promoters of Florida, who has been dead many years.

Mrs. Read transacts her banking business in this city, and among other items in her book was a check on the Gainesville National Bank, as the paper stated, which probably led the reporter of The Metropolis to believe that the lady made her home in this city.

PROF. FLINT'S LECTURE.

Made a Fine Address on Panama Canal at Auditorium Tuesday.

Dr. Edward R. Flint, professor of chemistry at the University of Florida, and one of the most widely known of his profession in the South, gave an illustrated lecture on the Panama Canal at the auditorium of the Gainesville Graded and High School Tuesday.

Notwithstanding that there were other attractions in the city, the big auditorium was well filled, and those present were greatly impressed with the lecture.

A large number of school children were present, and the lecture, in connection with its entertaining feature, tended to enlighten the children considerably in the matter of geographical history. It is hoped by those who heard the lecture that Prof. Flint will again favor the people with an illustration of his wisdom in this direction at an early date.

GREAT DEMAND

For Hyomei, the Catarrh Cure That J. W. McCollum & Co. Guarantee.

The sales record of all medicines by J. W. McCollum & Co. has been broken by the recent remarkable demand for Hyomei. This is not alone due to the peculiar weather conditions that have increased catarrhal troubles, but the way in which J. W. McCollum & Co. sell Hyomei is undoubtedly responsible for many sales.

With every dollar outfit they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Hyomei does not give absolute satisfaction. Ask J. W. McCollum & Co. to explain to you about this guarantee.

There is no stomach dosing with Hyomei. It is a medicated air treatment that kills all catarrhal germs, preventing their growth and making catarrh impossible. It has cured many right here in Gainesville, and you should try it now and get relief from catarrh.

A CLEAN COURT RECORD.

Justice Colman Has Not Had Occasion to Sentence Him Since This Year.

"I never saw [illegible] in my whole official life," good-naturedly declared Justice Colman to [illegible] Wednesday, upon which occasion [illegible] additions of fines [illegible]

"I've been [illegible] town the size of Gainesville, or another district the size of my own, in the State of Florida, or even in the South, that can show a cleaner record than this court, for I have not had a single case docketed this year."

Death of Dr. Barnard.

The sad news reached the city a few days since of the death in St. Marys, Ga., of Dr. A. F. Barnard, formerly of Marion county, and later a prominent citizen and physician of Savannah, where he distinguished himself during the last epidemic of yellow fever in that city. He was a descendant of Lord John Barnard of Barnard Castle, England. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Fannie Turner of Savannah. He was an uncle of J. O. Andrews, and great uncle of Mrs. H. J. Goodnow, of this city.

Twenty-six ladies have signed a petition in St. Petersburg and will present same to the city council asking that the coming bond election in that city be postponed indefinitely. A negro who was working in the yard rushed into the house and secured a bucket of water and extinguished the flames, when a physician was summoned and the child's injuries were attended to.

Miss Serena Allen of Greenville was brutally assaulted at her home while asleep by an unknown party Sunday night. The nature of the wound leads one to believe that she was struck with a sand-bag. Examination showed that nothing further than the lick on the head had been perpetrated, and if the fiend had any motive other than to take her life, he was frightened away before accomplishing his purpose. Miss Allen is about twenty-three years of age and of most estimable character.

ITCHING HUMOR ON LITTLE BOY

His Hands were a Solid Mass, and Disease Spread All Over His Body —In Four Days the Child was Entirely Cured—Mother Strongly

RECOMMENDS CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"One day we noticed that our little boy was all broken out with itching sores. We first noticed it on his little hands. His hands were not as bad then, and we didn't think anything serious would result. But the next day we heard of the Cuticura Remedies being so good for itching sores, etc., that I thought I would get them. By this time the disease had spread all over his body, and his hands were nothing but a solid mass of this itching disease. I went to the drug store and purchased a box of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, and that night I stripped my little boy and took the Cuticura Soap and lukewarm water and washed him well. Then I dried him with a soft bath towel, and took the Cuticura Ointment and rubbed him thoroughly with it. I did this every evening before I put him to bed and in three or four nights he was entirely cured. You have my permission to publish this because anybody who suffered as my baby did ought to know of the Cuticura Remedies. I will surely and gladly recommend the Cuticura Remedies, for they are a godsend to all suffering with skin diseases. Mrs. Frank Donahue, 208 Fremont St., Kokomo, Ind., Sept. 16, 1907."

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

Marshal Arnow Had Big Haul on Crap Shooters Monday.

There was an interesting session of the Mayor's Court Monday afternoon, when Will Hughes, H. Moyers, Peter Brown, Sam Watts and John Gaines, professional "crap shooters," were arraigned, and fined from $2.50 to $10 and costs each. They were arrested by Marshal Arnow Monday morning.

John Daniels was a member of the "gang," but made his escape over a roof, making a "drop." It is said, of about fifteen feet onto a shed, and getting out through a hallway.

Don't let the baby suffer from eczema, sores or any itching of the skin. Doan's Ointment gives instant relief, cures quickly. Perfectly safe for children. All druggists sell it.

THE BAPTISTS RETURN.

Have Been Attending State Association at Plant City—Fine Meeting.

Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Rogers, J. M. Rivers, J. F. Bunch, S. M. Mixson and Mrs. E. D. Winn have returned from Plant City, where they have been attending the annual session of the Florida State Baptist Association, of which the former is president. The others went as delegates from the First Baptist church in this city.

As has already been announced, Dr. Rogers, who has so ably filled the position of president of the association for the past year, was unanimously reelected to that responsible position, which was the highest honor which could have been bestowed upon him.

President Rogers feels very much encouraged over the conditions of the Baptist church in Florida, as they now exist. There were present at this convention more than four hundred delegates, which is the largest State convention of Baptists ever held in Florida.

The report shows that during the year just closed the enormous sum of $82,000 was paid out by the denomination in Florida for State mission work. There were 2,200 accessions in the mission fields, and over 5,000 increase during the year throughout the State.

Including the endowment of Columbia College, the denomination has determined to raise during the coming year $300,000 for missions and educational work.

DeFuniak Springs was chosen for the meeting place of the association next year.

THE NEWS FROM ARCHER.

He leaves many friends who hope for his speedy recovery.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in rose and curve. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

A NEW METHOD OF MOVING PHOSPHATE

Representatives of Cummer Lumber Co. Making Investigation.

WILL USE SUWANNEE RIVER

If Water is of Sufficient Depth to Lighter Phosphate to the Gulf, Where It Will be Transferred to Vessels for Shipment Abroad.

An investigation is about to be made by extensive industries which, if satisfactory, will mean the opening up of a new line of transportation on the Suwannee river, from Wannee and other points to the Gulf, and will save the promoters thousands of dollars annually in freight charges.

W. E. Cummer, of the Cummer Lumber Company, Jacksonville, L. R. Chazal, superintendent of the phosphate department, and W. R. Steckert, land commissioner of the Cummer company, left Tuesday night for Cedar Key. These gentlemen will proceed from Cedar Key up the Suwannee river to take soundings with a view of ascertaining the feasibility of transporting phosphate from the mines of the West End down the river, to be loaded on vessels for export The majority of the Cummer mines are in the Newberry district, several miles from the river, which fact will also necessitate the building of a railroad from the various mines to the point of loading on lighters.

Heretofore the products of the mines have been transported either to Jacksonville or Fernandina by rail, giving the railroad companies a long haul and naturally necessitating enormous freight charges.

A careful investigation will be made, and if practical this mode of moving the products of the Cummer mines will be established. It will open up a new line of industry along the Suwannee which is bound to prove of benefit to a large number of people.

AN EXCITING EXPERIENCE.

North Gainesville Lady Attacked by Rooster While Feeding Poultry.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Mrs. H. A. Fisher, a well-known and popular lady residing with her family in North Gainesville, had quite an exciting experience at her home a few days ago which she will not soon forget, as she still bears the scars upon her face as evidence.

This experience was as remarkable as it was exciting, and an incident which has never before been heard of in this section.

Mrs. Fisher, as she is wont to do daily, was engaged in the fowl-yard feeding the poultry, when she was attacked by an immense rooster, the displeasure of which she seemed to create. The rooster made a sudden and unexpected attack upon the lady as she was bending over, piercing her face quickly with its sharp spurs in several places, and from the result of which the wounds bled freely.

The wounds were dressed, however, and the lady will suffer no serious results. As a retaliation, however, that rooster is now minus a set of spurs, and in future can do no damage.

Meeting of Presbyterians.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Taylor have moved into their new home on West Liberty street, where the Taylor family are now pleasantly located. This is one of the most modern homes in this section of the State, possessing all conveniences, and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor congratulate them upon their new possession.

The smoke-houses and cribs are full, and the people are happy.

T. F. Davis, a well-known and successful trucker of Rocky Point, was trading in the city yesterday. Mr. Davis states that the crops at Rocky Point worth saving were protected from the recent cold. The only damage was to lettuce, and the market price on that product has been so low recently that it may really be construed as a blessing that the same was destroyed. Two wrecking trains passed through the city yesterday from Prairie Creek, where they have been engaged in picking up "the leavings" from the wreck which occurred at that point on Saturday. M. M. Clyatt of Otter Creek, one of the successful merchants of that progressive Levy county town, was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business. Mr. Clyatt states that trade and business generally has held up remarkably well in his town, notwithstanding that many have been thrown out of employment in that section for the past few weeks. The laborers, who seemed to be of an industrious class, have saved their earnings, with the result that the majority of them have sufficient funds to tide them over the dull times.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.
